

Valentine's Day and Chinese New Year Promotion
On New Health Assessment Package

To Assignment Editors:

(Hong Kong -- February 12, 2007) Valentine's Day is 14th February and it is a nice occasion to express your affection with a thoughtful gift – Hong Kong Adventist Hospital's newly launched "Healthy Valentine Physical Examination"! If you are coming with your loved one, they will get a 10% off on their own packages. The promotion period will be from now to 8th March 2007.

"Healthy Valentine Physical Examination" covers more than 30 tests including newly added Mammography (for female only), Pelvic Ultrasound (for female only) and Upper Abdominal Ultrasound (for male only).

Examination by a general practitioner will be only $7000 for male or $7800 for female. Examination by an Internal Medicine specialist will be $7580 for male or $8380 for female.
